Trials

Make-up and hair trials take place at Abbie's welcoming home studio in Gorslas (SA14) and typically last up to 90 minutes per service. It's best to book your trial around two months before your wedding day to ensure everything is perfectly planned.

Your appointment will begin with a detailed consultation, where you'll chat through your vision, including your hair and make-up preferences, wedding dress style, colour palette, florals, and overall theme. This helps Abbie craft a look that truly reflects your unique personality and wedding aesthetic.

From there, you'll begin your trial session, working together to refine and perfect your look until you're completely happy and confident ahead of the big day.

To Get the Most Out of Your Trial:

- Bring along any hair accessories or extensions you plan to wear on the day.
- Create a mood board of make-up and hairstyles you love – Pinterest is perfect for this!
- Wear a top with a similar neckline and colour to your wedding dress for a more accurate visual.
- If you're having a spray tan or individual lashes, try to book them in ahead of the trial so we can see the full effect with your look.
- Arrive fresh-faced, with no make-up, and hair washed according to how it will be on the wedding day (this depends on your style – Abbie can advise in advance).
- Planning a haircut before the wedding? Be sure to consider how the new length might affect your chosen style.
- For Hollywood waves, hair extensions are recommended for those with finer hair to add volume and hold.

Once your look is complete and you're happy, we'll go over all the final details – including timings, schedule, and any special arrangements so you're fully prepared for your big day!

CONSULTATION & TRIAL

The next step is to book in your trial and consultation. It is recommended to book this in 2 months prior to your big day. Trials are held at Abbie's home studio and last up to an hour and a half per service. You will begin with a thorough consultation where you will discuss your make-up/ hair preferences, the style of your dress, the flowers and décor you have chosen for your big day. This will help to create a look for you, based on your individual personality and personal style. You will then continue with your trial where you will work together to create the perfect look, ensuring you leave confident about your chosen wedding day look. Once you're happy with your look, you can then discuss timings and arrangements for the big day.

WEDDING DAY

It's your big day! The last thing for you to do now is to sit back, relax and have that prosecco at hand...or a coffee! Abbie will always arrive 15 minutes early to set-up to ensure she is ready to make a start at the agreed time. Abbie's recommendation for the bride to go in the middle for hair/make-up is to ensure there's ample time to get ready without feeling rushed. Leaving you with plenty of time to get into your dress, have photos taken, and have any final hair or make-up checks before you head off to walk down the aisle.

Abbie promises to offer a highly professional service, and will be glad to help out wherever needed, that being helping you and your bridesmaids into your dresses, etc and will be with you until you leave for the ceremony.

To ensure you're topped up throughout the day, Abbie also provides you with a mini top-up kit to ensure you're picture perfect throughout the whole day.
